Registration, what does it mean?

Which papers do I get?

Persons who seek asylum in Germany will be registered.

Registration can be done at any branch of the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF).

Personal data, photographs and fingerprints will be stored.

After registration you will receive a paper called „Proof of Arrival“ (Ankunftsnachweis - AKN).

This „Proof of Arrival“ is your first official document and entitles your stay in Germany as well as to apply for state benefits/support services.

How do I apply for Asylum?

Which papers do I get?

Asylum applications are made at any branch of the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF).
An interpreter will be available.

To proof identity you need to show: passport, certificate of birth or driving-license.

After your application for asylum, you will receive a permit of residence.
This Permit of Residence replaces the „Proof of Arrival,“ and confirms legal stay in Germany.
You are now entitled to further state support, for example integration courses.

Where do I get money?

At your first appointment at the Welfare Authority you will receive a cheque.

Depending on your surname (family name) an administrator at the authority will be responsible for further proceedings.

If you have the right identity documents you can now open a bankaccount.

If I get ill, what do I do?

At your first appointment with the Welfare Authority you will receive a Health Insurance Card to visit a doctor or dentist.

At the beginning of every quarter (1. January, 1. April, 1. July, 1. October) a new card will be issued.
This card will be sent by post or given to you by a social worker at your housing.

With this card you can visit any doctor if you need treatment for acute illness or chronic pain.

Further treatment/help needs to be applied for.

How do I find housing?

In the first months of their stay, asylum seekers must live in special housing. !

Following persons with prospects of permanent residence may rent private housing:

- Families with children.
- Married couples.
- Relatives, who share housing.
- Single persons, who cannot live in special housing, due to severe medical reasons.

1.

If you get authorization to rent housing, you need to give the house-owner (Vermieter) a „Certificate of Request,, (Mietbescheinigung)
This form should be completed by the house-owner.

2.

Next, costs and condition of housing (flat) will be checked.
Only then, approval is granted.

3.

If there is no furniture in the flat, you can apply for additional support.

There are waiting times due to the high number of requests

Integration Courses are the most intensive form of learning German. These courses are offered and financed by the Federal Office for Migration and Refugees (BAMF).

What types of courses are offered? Which integration course can I attend?

There are general integration courses, literacy courses and intensive courses.

An intensive course is suitable for persons who are interested in fast learning.
Additionally there are extra courses for parents, women and youths.

Children and youths who have to go to school cannot attend an integration course.

Only asylum-seekers with prospects of permanent residence (Syria, Irak, Iran, Eritrea and Somalia) can take part in BAMF integration courses.
To participate you need a (temporary) residence permit.
The Job Centre, Authority for Foreigners and the Social Welfare Office can oblige participation.

If you have to go to school, do consult your local integration centre.
